

CBM Flamborough Quarry – Pumping Test Summary – July 23 2008

- Pumping test has continued at 10 l/s for approximately 48 hours
- The present number of monitors that appear to be responding to the current pumping test rate of 10 l/s is 10
- Number of trigger monitors that appear not to be responding to the current pumping test rate of 10 l/s is 28
- The groundwater drawdown observed at the pumping well is approximately 23 metres
- The zone of influence observed for the pumping test as of July 22 2008 is approximately 300 metres
- Water levels in the pumping well have stabilized at around 260 masl
- Test is continuing under the current rate of 10 l/s